

2IP presents Fall Webinars:

NOVO
nordisk
fonden

INNOVATION CENTRE
DENMARK

LIFE SCIENCE + ENTREPRENEURSHIP + SILICON VALLEY

*Interested in the cross-field between life sciences and entrepreneurship?
This fall 2IP will host four webinars designed to give students an insight into Silicon Valley from a Life Science perspective*

THE PERSONAL JOURNEY OF STARTING A LIFE SCIENCE COMPANY

September 29th
5 pm - 6 pm CET

During the talk, Grace will share the ups and downs that she has encountered along the way and how she has managed to overcome some of the obstacles that inevitably comes along when starting a company.

Grace Wei
COO/Founder at Encellin

THRIVING IN THE SPACE BETWEEN UNIVERSITY AND START-UPS

October 20th
5 pm - 6 pm CET

Listen to some of the learnings that Kevin Grimes has made over the past 10 years working with the SPARK program and how he recommends students and entrepreneurs move forward with their projects.

Kevin Grimes
Professor, Stanford University;
Co-director of the SPARK
Program

ENTREPRENEURING IN A PANDEMIC AND POST-PANDEMIC WORLD: PERSPECTIVES OF SILICON VALLEY VENTURE CAPITALISTS

November 18th
5 pm - 6 pm CET

Professor Mark Cannice will share his thoughts on how to successfully start a company and the advice that he has received from Investors and Venture Capital groups – and how this has changed after the Covid-19 pandemic.

Mark Cannice
USF Professor of Entrepreneurship

RIDING ON THE WAVE OF COVID-19 – WHAT CAN WE LEARN FROM THE INNOVATIVE PROCESS

December 8th
5 pm - 6 pm CET

Meet Shomit Ghose who will share his perspective on what changes the Covid-19 crisis brings for entrepreneurs and what upsides the new reality brings with it.

Shomit Ghose
General Partner, Onset Ventures

READ MORE AND REGISTER AT 2IP.DK

All webinars are free, and brought to you by 2IP (The International Innovation Project), a unique program for master students with the opportunity for a semester in a Silicon Valley Life Science start-up – deadline for the fellowship program closes soon, apply now at 2ip.dk.

The program is sponsored by The Novo Nordisk Foundation and run in collaboration with Innovation Center Denmark, Silicon Valley.